

THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

St John the Evangelist
Anglican Parish of Dee Why

Sunday 11 September 2011

WELCOME TO ST JOHN'S CHURCH DEE WHY

St John's today is a place of soul-stirring worship, challenging preaching, fine art and music, warm fellowship and outreach. It remains as Dee Why's oldest institution.

We are an Anglican parish in the Catholic Tradition of Anglicanism, which:

- welcomes everyone and
- seeks to live the life of Christ in community and
- reaches out in love to others to share this life

If you are a baptised communicant Christian from another Church you are welcome to receive Holy Communion with us today, or you may choose to come forward to receive a blessing.

Please join us for refreshments after all services.

as we celebrate

FROM THE RECTOR

11 September 2011

Dear Friends,

Today is the tenth anniversary of the terrorist attacks in New York and Washington DC that caused the deaths of thousands of innocent people. It precipitated the 'War on Terror' with the invasion of Afghanistan and Iraq, and many more deaths of military and civilian personnel. Further terrorist attacks (London, Bali, Madrid, etc.) have led to more suffering and loss of life. Truly, it was a day that changed the world.

How fitting, therefore, that the readings this Sunday are all about forgiveness and reconciliation, and the consequences faced by those who will not forgive as they have been forgiven. The divine call to healing and reconciliation must be heard throughout the world today as we pray in humble penitence for peace, and ask God for the grace that will change people's hearts and enable us—while helping us to defend all that is good, and just, and right—to move beyond the past to care for each other and respect one another's human rights.

With every blessing,

Fr Steven

PARISH NEWS

Amnesty International: Letter writing will be conducted today with Jean Kraushaar, after each morning service.

Fellowship at St John's (Focus on Women and Family Life):

Mothers' Union Spring Lunch: For its next meeting on Wednesday 21 September, the MU group will celebrate the coming of spring with lunch at Flower Power, Warriewood, following St John's 10:00am Healing Eucharist and morning tea. Please let Dn Sandra know if you need transport.

Mothers' Union Day of Prayer: Believing that prayer underpins everything we do, the MU Day of Prayer for the Region will be led by Bishop Glenn Davies at St Paul's Anglican Church, Chatswood on Friday 23 September, 9:30am-12:30pm.

Caritas and Playtime Mums: Our combined gourmet dinner evening will be held on Thursday 22 September at 7:00pm, with a "Black-and-White" theme. All welcome. For information, please speak with Barbara Emmett (9971 8428) or Lynette Johnson (0408 254 125).

Taizé in Sydney: In September, Br Ghislain (and another Taizé brother) is visiting Sydney again. A service will be held at St James, King Street at 7:00pm on Tuesday 13 September. All welcome. Also, any who would like to help with music - playing their instruments - are invited to go for a practice at 6:00pm on that day. For information, please see the flyers on the lobby table and notice board.

Learn about organic gardening on Thursday 20 October, at a guided tour of the Eco House and Garden Education Centre, and the recycling program at Kimbriki. Warringah Council is offering bus transport from Dee Why and will be serving morning tea. As seating is limited, if interested, please put your name on the list in the lobby. For information, please speak with Karin Peters or Heather Andrews.

Spring Holidays are fast approaching when our ministry volunteers can take a well-earned break. Children's and youth ministries will be in recess from Monday 26 September to Sunday 9 October (inclusive), and the English Conversation Class will not be held on Tuesdays 27 September or 4 October. While Crèche will continue, there will be no Godly Play on Sundays 2 or 9 October.

St John's Crèche: Please welcome Chloe Roberts who has agreed to step into the role of running the Sunday morning Crèche as Alana Taylor heads off for a couple of months.

Op Shop: St John's Op Shop raised $2,181 on Saturday 3 September. Many thanks to all who contributed and helped.

Happy Birthday Ailene Blakeney (15th), Jean Knight (16th), Pamela Francis (17th).

Classical Variety Concert next Saturday 17 September, 2:00pm!

St John's successful classical variety music program continues with performances by three young virtuosi: highlights are to include Harry Ward (15), violinist playing Brahms, Angela Wong (14), pianist playing Beethoven and Chopin, and Tony Hah (13), clarinettist, playing Mozart and Rimsky-Korsakov. They will be accompanied by leading Australian pianist, John Martin. Our MC again, Michael Tesoriero, bass-baritone, will perform from his highly popular repertoire, accompanied by Margaret Titchen.

Extra help is important for our concerts to be successful. Parishioners are needed to welcome visitors, prepare and serve afternoon tea on the day, and to bring sandwiches, cakes or other goodies. Please see Bev Bingham to assist. Flyers for delivery to neighbours, friends and family are available to help promote the event. Please take some, and if you can deliver flyers in bulk, please let the parish office know how many you need printed.

Disaster Relief! While people the world over are suffering from poverty and exploitation, perhaps nowhere at the present time is the scale of devastation so great as in the Horn of Africa. Many agencies are inviting donations. In the pew sheets last week and again this week there are forms/flyers that you can use to support the work of "ACT For Peace" (this is the agency responsible for the Christmas Bowl Appeal). As we pray today for the people of this region, please consider your response. Proceeds from our concert next Saturday will be directed to this appeal.

Rosters – Rosters – Rosters!!! Now that Bev has started preparing the next round of rosters (October 2011 to January 2012), we need more people to volunteer for helping, particularly at the Sunday services which they attend (especially 10:00am), on the Tuesday/Friday cafe, and with weekly church cleaning and grounds upkeep. If you can help, please contact Bev Bingham, or leave your details at the office for her to call you. Also, please let Bev know if you are intending to be away over October-January, or if your availability for Christmas services is limited.

Offering Envelopes: New sets of envelopes, for those who are using them may be collected from the back of the church. If you do not yet have a set, or would prefer to use our direct funds transfer system, please talk with Robyn Couch so it can be arranged.
