

THE THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday 13 November 2011

WELCOME TO ST JOHN'S CHURCH DEE WHY

St John's today is a place of soul-stirring worship, challenging preaching, fine art and music, warm fellowship and outreach. It remains as Dee Why's oldest institution.

We are an Anglican parish in the Catholic Tradition of Anglicanism, which:

- welcomes everyone and
- seeks to live the life of Christ in community and
- reaches out in love to others to share this life

If you are a baptised communicant Christian from another Church you are welcome to receive Holy Communion with us today, or you may choose to come forward to receive a blessing.

Please join us for refreshments after all services.

as we celebrate

Evensong

St John's Anglican Church acknowledges the traditional custodians of this land and pays respect to all Aboriginal people, and to their families past and present.

Dear Friends,

In this Sunday's gospel, the cautious prudence of the man who buried his talent and gave it back unused was condemned, because the gospel does not simply encourage us not to lose the grace we have received. It must be cultivated.

The good news is a message of love, and love must be shared, expressed and given away prodigally with flair, imagination, creativity and generosity. That is what makes it grow.

It is an investment that cannot be hidden away or treated cautiously. The more it is given away, the more it increases.

With every blessing,

Fr Steven

PARISH NEWS

Baptism: We welcome Celyn England into the family of the Church through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism at 10:00am today. Please pray for Celyn, her parents and godparents as they rejoice in sharing with us the Christian faith.

Confirmations and Children's First Communions: Please continue to pray for Phillip Cutugno and Charlotte Fullarton who received their First Holy Communion last week, and for those confirmed on Friday; Michael Roberts, Christopher Salmon, Sebastian Davies-Mills, Adam Roberts, Chloe Roberts, Kim Davies-Mills, John Fairley, Aria Jafarkhani Doulabi and Yavar Ahangarani Farahani, along with students from The Pittwater House Schools.

Thanks: to the Cathedral Singers, our soloists and orchestra, and to Tim Swales for their magnificent performance of Fauré's Requiem on 3 November at the All Souls Mass. Thanks also to all who helped make this a memorable occasion in the worshipping life of St John's, and to Gregory and Carr for their generous sponsorship of the event.

Mothers' Union (MU): Come and enjoy lunch at Dee Why RSL club on Wednesday 16 November. We meet at the church for the Healing Eucharist at 10 am or in the foyer of the club about 12 o'clock. As this is our last meeting for the year, let's make it special! All welcome. Please see Dn Sandra or Margaret if requiring transport.

Happy Birthday to Jessica Rynd (15th), Shirley Tucker (15th)

Christ the King Sunday:

Next Sunday, 20 November is the Sunday before Advent, and the last Sunday in the Church's liturgical year. The Feast of Christ the King was instituted in 1925, and reminds Christians of their allegiance to their spiritual rule as distinct from earthly powers. This year we again welcome The Cathedral Singers to the 10:00am Holy Eucharist. It will also be Dn Sandra's 22nd Anniversary of Ordination.

Op Shop: St John's Op Shop raised $2,114 on Saturday 5 November. Many thanks to all who contributed and helped. There will be a Saturday barbecue following the 3 December Op Shop (after packing) for all our volunteers and helpers. This is our way of saying "Thank You" for all your support and hard work throughout the year.

St John's "Pins & Needles" Group is meeting on Tuesday 22 November at 9:30am in the library. The Group will be making small Christmas decorations, as well as continuing knitting squares and strips.

Christmas cards: For your Christmas Greeting needs, please see Valda Ashover, who has a supply of ABM and other charity cards. If browsing at the table in the church you can also find books that suitable as gifts.
